What is TOURMALINGO

●Why is vibration adjustment necessary?

Our living environment is surrounded by modern buildings and artifacts, vibrations of space are very disturbed due to air pollution, electromagnetic waves of electric products, human dissatisfaction and uneasiness, stressing our mentally and physically. It also causes fatigue and poor physical condition.

●What is TOURMALINGO made of?

It is made of a combination of a ceramic tourmaline known as a healing power stone called October's birthstone, aka "Electric Stone" that generates negative ions, a magnetic field water, and a water absorbing agent (water retention).

●Mechanism of tourmalingo ?

In addition to the deodorizing effect and the antibacterial effect of the tourmaline ore, the tourmaline involves high quality vibration energy, so it is possible to return the distortion of the mind and body and living environment back to normal natural rhythm of nature. Then, the surrounding air is refreshed, disgusting smell disappears, the heart and body are healed, the mind calms down, the stress disappears and relaxes, it becomes bright and positive, and becomes energetic.

●Effective application of tourmaline

Please place 1 to 2 in each place or 1 in 3.3 square meters according to purpose such as a personal computer and electric products, study desk, bedside, living room, car etc as a guide.
